THE CITY

Incorporated in 1886, the City of Willows is a rural agricultural community and place of natural beauty with countless opportunities for recreation in both rural and urban environments.

The City derives its name from the willows which grew on the plains about a mile east of the City limits. Historically, the willows formed a notable landmark in the vast Central Valley plains surrounding the City.

Willows is located approximately halfway between Sacramento and Redding in Northern California surrounded by rich farmland with mountains and Interstate 5 on the west side of the City and the northern Central Valley and Sacramento River watershed on the east side. Agriculture remains one of the primary sources of the area's economy. Major commodities include rice, almonds, milk products, prunes, and livestock.

The city is also home to most major regional government offices, including County Administration, California Highway Patrol, California Department of Motor vehicles, the United States Bureau of Reclamation, and the main headquarters for the Mendocino National Forest - which comprises approximately one million acres of Federal land mostly located in mountainous terrain west of Willows.

EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS

Any combination equivalent to training and experience that could likely provide the required knowledge, skills, and abilities would be qualifying. A typical way to obtain the knowledge, skills, and abilities would be: An Associate Degree from an accredited college public or business administration or a related field and/or a minimum of five years of increasingly responsible experience performing complex administrative duties in a City Clerk's office, or equivalent experience in a similar government agency, or complex Executive Assistant duties in the private sector.

License and Certification:

- Possession of, or ability to obtain, a valid California driver's license.
- Possession of, or ability to obtain, Notary Public.
- Possession of, or ability to obtain (within three years of appointment), a Certified Municipal Clerk (CMC) designation.
